ARKANSAS STATE'S PROGRESS

Filled with hard unceasing labor and a constant battle against discouragement, the story of the development of Arkansas State College is a history that is full of glamour and romance. Though comparatively young in years, this institution has had more than its share of trials since its conception in 1909. Loyalty and belief in what they were working for, and what they were bringing to the people of Arkansas, led the founders and developers of the school to continue their work in the face of the greatest odds.

In 1909, the Hon. J. J. Bellamy introduced Act 100 into the legislative body of Arkansas. This Act provided that four district Agricultural Schools be established in the state. On April 1, 1909, the bill passed the Legislature, and the way was cleared for the founding of the State Agricultural School.

Early in 1910, the Board of Trustees and President V. C. Kays, ambitious to get the school started, opened it for business in rooms above the old T. J. Ellis Jewelry Company in Jonesboro. In 1911, the original Administration Building and two dormitories, Barnhart and Lewis Halls, were completed, and the school moved into its own buildings.

Dr. Newton H. Brown, the first Doctor of Philosophy on the faculty, came in 1927. Then, in 1929, came recognition from the North Central Association of Arkansas A. and M. as a two year college. In 1930 the school offered its first four year courses, and in the spring of 1931 the first graduates completed their work.

The great fire of 1931 seemed a tragedy at the time, but it developed into a two million dollar building project. On January 17, the Administration Building, which had been in use since 1911, burned. To replace it, R. E. Lee Wilson Hall was completed in the fall of 1932. At the same time two new dormitories were started, and they were completed in 1934.

The North Central Association recognized the College an official degree granting institution in 1933. In the spring of this same year, the name was changed to Arkansas State College by a special act of Legislature. Members of the Board of Trustees at the time the College became a four year institution, were R. Whitaker, President, Maurice Block, R. E. Lee Wilson, W. L. Banks, and Pearle Davis.

In 1936, the R. O. T. C. was added to the College curriculum. All male students take two years of military training. Graduates of the four year course are awarded a commission of Second Lieutenant in the Reserve Officers Corps.

The year 1938 saw the completion of two new buildings, making the total value of the physical plant of Arkansas State College amount to $1,700,000. The completion of the new Military and Science buildings in 1940 brought that total up to $2,000,000.

Governor Bailey in 1939 appointed Judge J. C. Johnson, West Memphis civic leader, and Will Mack, Jonesboro theater man, to serve on the Board of Trustees in place of Mr. Wilson and Mr. Whitaker who had passed on to their Eternal Reward.

In the hands of the Board of Trustees of the College rests the huge responsibility for the general welfare of the faculty, students, and the physical plant. Each of the Board Members is chosen by the Governor of the State of Arkansas, and each is active in the behalf of education. To them, President V. C. Kays, and Senators Thaddeus H. Caraway and Hattie W. Caraway must go the credit for the growth of Arkansas State College.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

With the passing of this day all of us approach the unknown of tomorrow. We have concentrated on this year's problems and found the principles for their solutions in the history and experiences of the past. We are prone to feel that these principles of solution are basic, and, therefore, we can depend upon them rather implicitly for the satisfactory and successful interpretation of our tomorrow.

May we not feel that, in the new order of world affairs, this reasoning may be erroneous. New factors, injected during these days of world strife into the daily life activities of the individual and of the social group, warn us that tomorrow will not be just another today. Changing conditions demand new adjustments. It behoves us to consider the particulars in which the world of the present differs from that of the past. All worthwhile progress has always been a steady acceleration, and there is no indication that this movement is even approaching its culmination.

So, we move into the unknown of tomorrow armed with our faith in the future and our knowledge of the past with confidence that these may give us the proper interpretative backgrounds for a satisfactory analysis of a new world order. May we all be ready and willing to accept the new order and to contribute our part in its orientation and development.

PRESIDENT V. C. KAYS

V. C. Kays

DEAN D. F. SHOWALTER

REGISTRAR H. E. ELDRIDGE

HENRY W. HOLLARD

MRS. MARY ROGERS BROWN

DEAN SHOWALTER

Dr. D. F. Showalter, as Dean of the College, has been a very important figure in the development of the College since he accepted this position three years ago.

Dean Showalter is an ever ready adviser for both the faculty and the students. He is often called on to speak at various high schools of the state, and to help solve educational problems. At the annual meeting of the Arkansas Educational Association, Dr. Showalter was elected vice-president of the Arkansas College Educational Association. He recently won distinction for his work on an experiment, "Learning of Human Subjects on Mazes." By keeping in constant contact with progressive education all over the United States as well as with Arkansas educational organizations, Dean Showalter is prepared to offer excellent advice to students who expect to enter the teaching profession.

REGISTRAR ELDRIDGE

H. E. Eldridge has held the official position of Registrar at Arkansas State since 1923. His long period of service has found him faced with many duties—his most important being to keep a permanent record of each student's scholastic and extra-curricular activities.

It is also his task to supervise the management of the National Youth Administration of the College. He serves in the capacity of supervising engineer for the construction, repairing, and maintenance of all College buildings and outlying property. Hunting and fishing are his favorite hobbies, and when he wishes to relax from his important duties, he indulges in these sports.

DEAN OF MEN, HOLLARD

As Dean of Men, Henry W. Hollard is chiefly concerned with the young men of Arkansas State College—apart from their classroom work. His understanding of the problems of young men makes him capable of helping the student to an intelligent understanding of his own interest in the community.

Besides serving the post of Dean of Men, Mr. Hollard has charge of all chapel programs, is an instructor in the College, and supervises the College dairy.

His office has supervision of all extra-curricular activities. Emphasizing prevention and cure above discipline is his chief concern.

DEAN OF WOMEN, MRS. BROWN

Mrs. Mary Rogers Brown as Dean of Women, fills a position similar to that of Dean of Men. The occupant of this position helps those girls who have problems concerning their social, scholastic, and private affairs.

Mrs. Brown undertook her duties as Dean of Women with the opening of the fall semester, 1937-38. She succeeded her mother, Mrs. Nannie A. Rogers, and her sister, Mrs. Adelaide R. Gafke.

Many girls, both in the dormitory and living in town, go to Mrs. Brown for kindly advice. Her motherly feelings have cheered many who were "home-sick" during the first few weeks of school.

CLASS OF 1940

OFFICERS

President .....	Edwin H. Garrison
Vice-President .....	James D. Ramsey
Secretary .....	Gladys Fisher
Treasurer .....	Imogene Baker
Sponsor .....	Dr. Ashley Robey

As we, the class of 1940, gaze eagerly into the future, we also pause to look backwards through the four years of our college experiences.

Entering Arkansas State College in the fall of 1936, we were somewhat awed by the newness and strangeness of situations and the collegiate atmosphere which surrounds us. It was through the efforts of adjusting ourselves to meet those standards that we received our first bit of education in this institution. In the early spring of 1937, we elected our freshman president, Newton Kil-lough, of Wynne. To keep up the traditions of the classes which went before us, we sponsored a "Freshman Hop" and indulged in the usual picnics and parties which were planned for us by our lovable sponsor, the late Dean E. L. Whitsitt.

EDWIN H. GARRISON

By the beginning of our sophomore year, we felt very much at home on the campus, and our viewpoint of college life was revolutionized. It was a sophomore who conceived the idea of giving a "Shipwreck Dance." This we did, and it was acclaimed a novel entertainment by all who attended. One of the more prominent boys of the student body, James Ramsey of Marmaduke, was our choice for president during that year. Under his guidance we enjoyed another happy and beneficial year together.

Enrolling for our third year we, as upperclassmen, were more determined than ever to excel as students, to promote better fellowship among our classmates, and to prepare ourselves to bear the title of "Seniors." Paul Allbright, of Marion, was chosen to lead us as president through our junior year. It was due to his efficient planning that the junior class sponsored the most successful Junior-Senior Prom in the history of the college. Another outstanding event on our calendar was participation in the Senior Swing-Out. Thus another year ended and at last we were ready to step into a place of seniority, a place of dignity and achievement.

Serving as Senior President has been Edwin Garrison, of Jonesboro. His keen leadership and congeniality augmented by the stability and careful guidance of Dr. Ashley Robey, our sponsor for the past three years, marks the climax of our college days at State.

As we leave we take with us four years of academic progress, treasured memories of social and intellectual activities, and everlasting friends.

CLASS OF 1941

OFFICERS

President	Homer Branan
Vice-President	Bernard Graham

In the fall of 1937 a new class came to Arkansas State College. This was the class of '41, embarking on one of its greatest adventures—College Life.

Within a few weeks, we were feeling quite at home and to carry out this feeling there was always an upperclassman to see that we were well behaved. Under the direction of Dr. D. F. Showalter, our sponsor, we soon entered into the social life of the college with a Freshman Picnic where, for the first time, we were doing something as a group. In the early spring of 1938 we elected our Freshman officers. Our president was Horace Ball of Newport. Later in the year we chose our officers for the 1938-39 school year. This time Edgar Hollan of Wynne was our choice for president. We were quite proud of our accomplishments in the social world of State that year. Of the six beauties in the INDIAN, five were from our class; the Engineers' Queen came from our ranks; and we gave to the ROTC four sponsors.

When we returned to school in the fall of 1938 our first task was to elect a president to take the place of Hollan who did not return to State. Leadership in our Sophomore year fell on the shoulders of Homer Branan. This year our sponsor was Mrs. Nannie A. Rogers. Our main task was to severely chastise the Freshmen who had come to fill our places as the beginners at State. In the spring of 1939 we introduced what we intend to become an annual custom on the campus—the Dogpatch Dance. It was a success and it bids fair to become the Sophomore celebration. We carried off our share of the honors again in the beauty selections for the annual this year—two of the six were Sophomores, and the ROTC took one of our members as their sponsor for one of the batteries. In addition to this two of the four maids to the Homecoming Queen were from our class. Before we left for the summer vacation we wrecked tradition by re-electing as our Junior president, Homer Branan.

In school this year we have furnished members for practically every organization on the campus and have representatives on all of the major athletic teams. During the Commencement Week activities we shall entertain the Seniors with the greatest social event of the year—the Junior-Senior Prom. This year the Homecoming Queen was from our class. She was Mildred Hout who was chosen by the football team to reign over the Homecoming game. Under the capable direction of Dr. W. W. Nedrow, we have taken our rightful place as successors to the Seniors of 1940. Next year we shall return as leaders of the school.

OFFICERS

President .....	George Booker
Vice-President .....	Louie Collier
Sec'y-Treas. ....	Reba Mock
Sponsor .....	Mrs. Nannie A. Rogers

This year's Sophomore Class began its college career last year, as Freshmen, with a total of two hundred and thirty students. At that time we elected Homer McEwen for our President and Gus Ray Ridings, Senior, as assistant sponsor.

Under the able leadership of our Faculty Sponsor, Dr. Homer C. Huitt, we took part in many of the major affairs on the campus. Of particular interest was the annual Freshman picnic, which was one of the most successful events of the year. We were also happy in the fact that three of our girls served as R. O. T. C. sponsors, and two were among the college beauties.

This year finds us, still, one hundred and forty-five in number. We find that many new faces have been added to our lot, while many that we encountered as freshmen are no longer among us. However, our decrease in number has not lessened our ability, for we are still carrying out our old traditions.

Louie K. Collier was elected to serve as our President throughout our Sophomore year; but when he had to leave school because of illness early in the first semester our Vice-President, George Booker, took over the chief officer's duties and filled them very efficiently. Mrs. Nannie A. Rogers was appointed as our Faculty Sponsor, and her help and advice has aided us a very great deal, both collectively and individually.

With picnics, parties, and other social events this year has been made a very pleasant one for all of the Sophomores. Perhaps the most entertaining event was the "Dogpatch Dance" which was carried out in the regular style and customs of the "Daisy Mae, Lil Abner" comic strip.

Treasurer .....	Hewlett "Bud" Brown
Freshmen Advisor .....	Paul Allbright
Sponsor .....	Dr. H. C. Huitt

We, the class of 1943, entered the portals of Arkansas State College as typical freshmen. We were frightened by the new world that was just opened to us and awed by the upperclassmen, but freshmen mixers, parties, and the friendly atmosphere soon eased the tension, and we began to feel at home.

Dr. H. C. Huitt, our sponsor, introduced us to our new surroundings and soon we became attached to our environment.

We went through the traditional initiation, wearing green caps, shining shoes, cleaning rooms, and bowing to upperclassmen.

The class, as a whole, won its share of honors, both in athletics and in scholastics. James Tate Cockrill received an appointment to Annapolis.

HISTORY OF THE SENIOR CLASS

Completing four years of leadership in school activities, we, the largest class ever to be graduated from the Training School, are proud of our record.

Members of the class are responsible for starting the first and only high school newspaper written in French, Le Petit Temps, in the State. Our class is also responsible for originating our school paper, the State High Examiner.

J. H. Mason has been our sponsor throughout our high school career.

TRAINING SCHOOL HOMECOMING QUEEN AND MAIDS

Jean Parker

Betty Jeanne Hale

Hazel Burdyshaw

Betty Jeanne Hale was elected queen to reign at State High's annual Homecoming game, which closed the basketball season. She won the election in a school wide vote in which she more than doubled the votes polled by her nearest competitors Jean Parker and Hazel Burdyshaw, both of whom acted as maids of honor in her court.

BOYS	BASKETBALL SCORES	GIRLS

DIVISION III

MILITARY

Capt. F. J. Achatz

Maj. W. E. Corkill

Capt. J. L. Lewis

SCENE: Administration Building

TIME: September 10, 1936

Arkansas State College's new R. O. T. C. regiment has just finished a week of classroom work, and two outdoor drills. Only last year was State given the army unit, and nearly 200 boys have enrolled to date.

Major W. E. Corkill is Professor of Military Science and Tactics, and his assistants are Captain Boniface Campbell and Captain John L. Lewis. The former two were army officers during the World War, while Captain Lewis graduated from West Point in the class of 1926.

According to regulations, each freshman and sophomore is required to take the basic course, the last two years are on a selective basis. Only a few students will be honored by this selection for advanced training and still fewer will become Reserve Officers in the U. S. Army.

SCENE: Military Science Hall

TIME: April 15, 1940

In less than one month the first regular four-year R. O. T. C. students will receive their degree and their commission in the Reserve Association. Although a few of the students, who were sophomores in 1936, were allowed to finish the course in three years, this year will mark the first regular graduates.

"Much water has run under the bridge" in the past four years. Major Corkill is still head of the Regiment. Captain Lewis, also, is still at State, but Captain Campbell was promoted to a Major and sent to the War College in Washington, D. C. To replace him, Captain F. J. Achatz was sent to State, and has been here for the past two years.

During the past year work has been centered at State on the new Science Building and adjoining Military Science Hall. Both buildings were built at a cost exceeding $200,000. All military science classes are now conducted here. During the first year the Administration Building was used, and for the two intermediate years classes were conducted in the old Armory building.

For three consecutive years the regiment has been given a rating of "Excellent". As ratings are usually given late in the year, we can only predict a fourth consecutive "Excellent" as we go to press.

Of the 15 R. O. T. C. students that will graduate this year, 10 are expected to receive their commissions as 2nd Lieutenant in the Reserve Corps. Four are candidates for the Honor Graduate Award, having been chosen by the Army Selection Board earlier in the semester.

Alpha Sigma Sorority was founded by eight girls on Feb. 25, 1935, on the campus of Arkansas State College. Dorothy Lea Lines, Wynne, served as the first President, with Mrs. Adelaide Rogers Gafke as first Sponsor. Imogéne Baker is now serving her second term as President, with Mrs. James H. Mason, Spnsor. The purpose of this organization is to further the aims of Arkansas State College by fostering social participation for the attainment of culture and by encouraging educational achievements.

In September, Alpha Sigma welcomes all new girls with a tea; and during commencement week, a tea is given complimenting the Senior girls. Each spring the pledges of Alpha Sigma are introduced at a formal dance. Alpha Sigma chooses every year a sponsor from each fraternity on the campus. This year the following were chosen: James Ramsey, Delta Omega Sigma; J. D. Fortenberry, Kappa Sigma Nu; and Paul Albright, Zeta Tau Zeta.

A medal is presented annually to the cutstanding student of the music department on Honor's Day by Alpha Sigma; and at the same time a collection of books is presented to the library.

Patrons and Patronesses of Alpha Sigma are: Mrs. James Hocker Mason, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Huitt, Mrs. D. F. Pasmore, Mrs. V. C. Kays, Captain and Mrs. F. J. Achatz, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McMeans, Mrs. D. T. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Plunkett, and Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Lutterloh.

Alpha Tau Zeta Sorority received its charter March 3, 1937. The initial group consisted of eighteen girls, with Bettye Sue Fortenberry as President. Miss Eleanor Heuver was appointed Sponsor, and she is still serving in that capacity.

Each year the sorority has several functions which have come to be a part of its regular program. Every fall the members give a tea at the beginning the school year in honor of all the girls in the dormitories, the freshman girls in town, and all of the faculty members. The backward dance, given in November, is an annual affair. The anniversary is always celebrated with a banquet and dance.

The main project of the sorority is the writing of the history of the college under the title "From Papoose to Chieftain." The Indian theme is predominant in the duties and ceremonials of pledging for new members.

The patrons of the sorority, Major and Mrs. W. E. Corkill, Captain and Mrs. J. L. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barrett Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Shover, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Patty, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Nedrow, Mr. H. W. Hollard, Mr. Roy Sigler, Mrs. H. W. Hollard our charter member, are special guests of the members at the anniversary banquet and dance.

Under the leadership of Miss Kathryn Bittinger, President, and Miss Ruth Collins, Sponsor, Delta Beta Chi is now in its fifth year of existence, having been the first organized sorority on the Arkansas State College campus. The two chief annual events of the year are the sorority's Birthday Dinner Dance in February and a formal dinner given for its patrons and patronesses.

Through its emphasis upon scholastic records and its attempts to extend the hand of sociability to the young women of the college, Delta Beta Chi has won its place on the campus. Included in its program of the year is the sponsorship of a no-date dance at the beginning of the school year, the awarding of a suitable prize to the organization presenting the best chapel program of the year, and the annual summer convention held in Memphis for the purpose of making plans for sorority work in the next school year. In addition, there are numerous sorority parties, dinners, and informal gatherings.

This year the sorority extended an invitation to Miss Lenore Schierding, Patroness, to become its first honorary member. Included in the group, other than the students, are also Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Crosno, Mr. and Mrs. Guy French, Miss Emma Rogers, Captain and Mrs. H. E. Eldridge, Mrs. E. L. Whitsitt, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Parr, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cooley, Sr., Mrs. H. W. "Let's have a fraternity." Those were the final words spoken at a meeting of five young men at Danner Hall one cold winter night late in 1934. That informal meeting resulted in the founding of Arkansas State's pioneer fraternity, Delta Omega Sigma, on January 25, 1935.

It was the task of Charles Light to draw up the Fraternity's constitution. Light, the son of a jurist, proved indispensable in his knowledge of the technicalities and phrasing of a well drafted constitution. It was this same constitution that was accepted by President V. C. Kays and the Board of Trustees, and which still governs the organization.

The first election of officers found the Fraternity's enrollment had swelled to almost twenty men—with Harry French, Robert N. Vaughn, J. Wm. McElvain, Jim Penix, Bobby Surridge, Cwen Elkins, William N. Faulkner as active members.

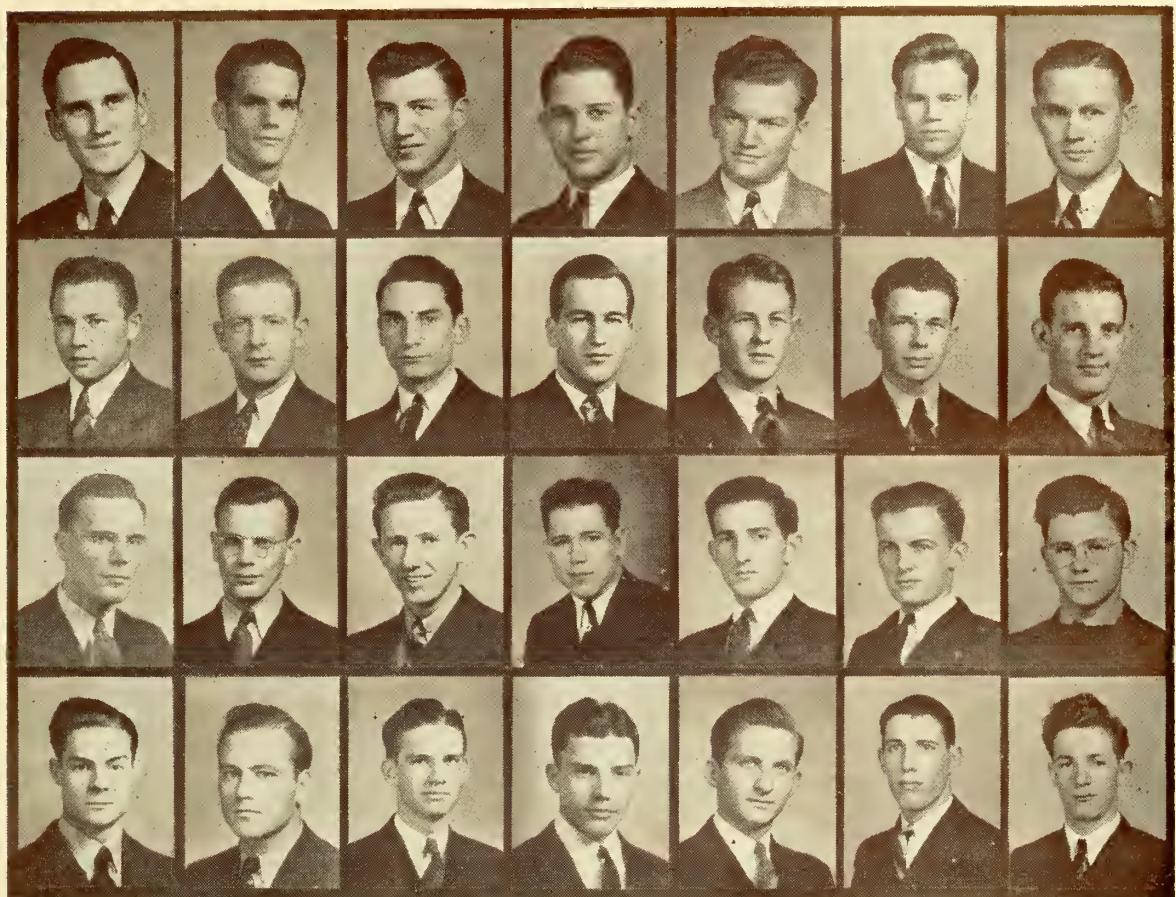

Since that year, this organization has grown to what it stands for today. Under its many capable president—Charles Light, Paul Chambers, Eddie Heath, Lloyd Hancock, and James Ramsey—this organization sponsored by C. E. McMeans, has always done its part in promoting the activities which make for the better scholastic and social surroundings on the campus.

During the past four years Delta Omega Sigma has sponsored dances with the profit being used to help in the Annual drive. For the past three years the Fraternity has held a formal dance. Ever since its founding, the organization has given smokers and other entertainments to encourage students to attend State College.

For the past few years, the fraternity has set aside a scholastic fund, to be increased each year, through which some student may borrow sufficient funds to help him continue his education.

Zeta Tau Zeta Fraternity was organized, and chartered, on the campus of Arkansas State February 9, 1937. Clarence Adams headed the new fraternity, which took as its mission the promotion of better relationship among the fraternities and sororities of the College. Clarence Adams, Jonesboro, was succeeded by James DeShazo, Viola, as President. Following his withdrawal from Arkansas State at the end of the semester he was succeeded by Charles Potter, Pine Bluff. Charles was again chosen President for the forthcoming year. After his failure to return to school, Wilson Sifford, Vice-President, took over the administrative duties until the election of a new President.

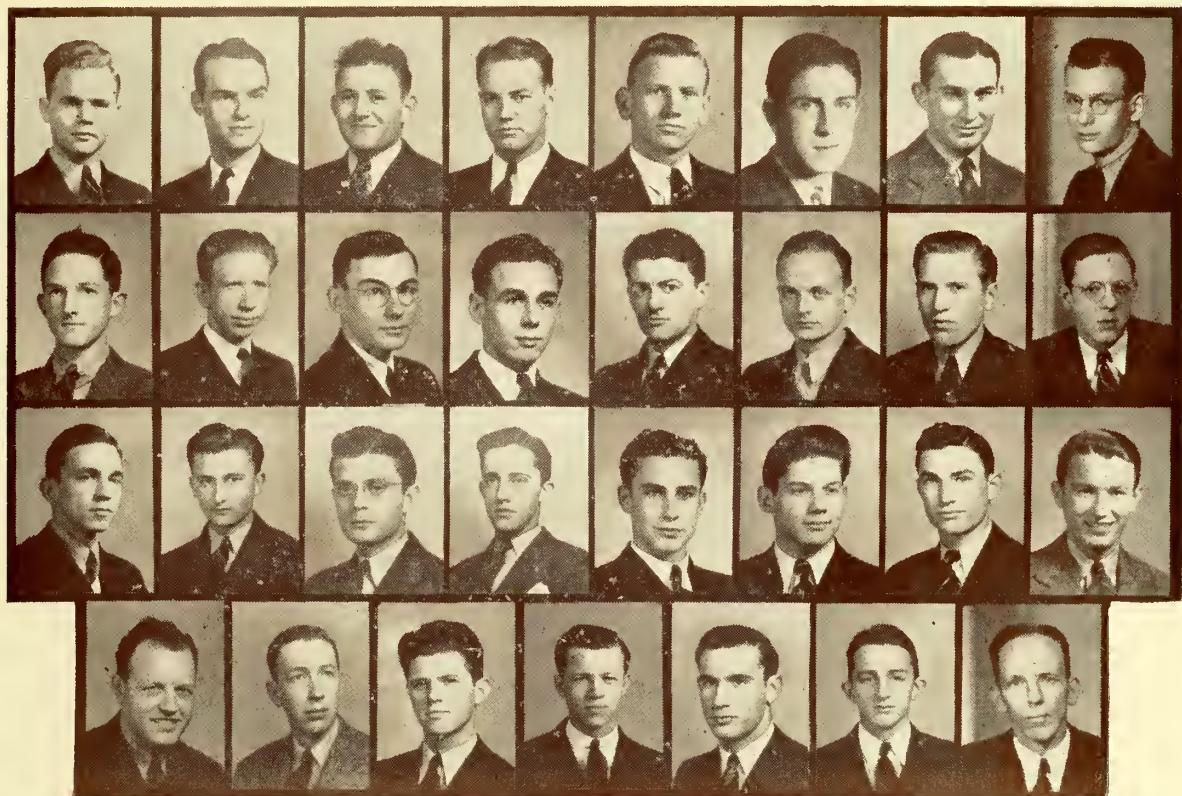

Guy French and Dean B. Ellis serve as Faculty Sponsor and Activity Adviser respectively.

For their Dream Girl of '38-'39 Miss Billie Masner of Monette, Arkansas, was selected, and Miss Dorothy Wilcox of Jonesboro was selected to succeed Miss Masner for the year '39-'40. Miss Wilcox was presented at the Annual Anniversary Ball February 3. Miss Wilcox reigned over the Ball and will rule over the fraternity functions for the coming year.

In addition to the other activities of the organization, the Z. T. Z.'s offer, each year, a medal to the outstanding journalist and athlete. Winners of these medals have been: Athletics: Orville Kellett, and Ivan Busby. Winners of the Journalism cups were Clarence Adams, and J. L. Swindle.

The national society was organized for the purpose of sending out from the colleges and universities, young men and women imbued with social idealism, trained in social thought, and encouraged to help others think straightly on all social questions. Its motto is the familiar epigram, "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." Pi Gamma Mu has many individual members who have lived up to that motto in a large measure, among them being Dr. Edward A. Ross, head of the Sociology Department of the University of Wisconsin, and the famous explorer, Admiral Richard E. Byrd.

This honor society differs from other honorary societies in having an active program for the society as a whole as well as for the local chapters. Beta Chapter has a monthly meeting which is pleasantly divided between the consideration of current problems and socialability. It makes the Woodruff Award yearly to the Junior College student who does the most outstanding work in the Social Science field. It participates in the yearly trip to the Juvenile Court of Memphis and aids the social consciousness of the campus life.

Only a few weeks after the installation of the R. O. T. C. regiment at Arkansas State College, the boys in the unit began talking about forming an Officers Club, and then after a year or so thinking it might be possible to "go national." With this objective in mind and with Major W. E. Corkill helping in every material way, it was not long until there was an officers club on the campus, composed entirely of Cadet officers in the R. O. T. C. organization.

With the untiring efforts of Grover Ashley and Francis Raymond, the Officers Club presented all proper credentials to the Installation Board of Scabbard and Blade at its annual Summer convention held in Los Angeles in the summer of 1938. The convention members passed by acclamation the request of the Officers Club of Arkansas State College to become affiliated with the national honorary military fraternity, Scabbard and Blade.

Major T. S. Crockett arrived at State soon after the conclave and installed the chapter here as M Company of the Seventh Regiment. The charter members were Grover Ashley, James Beard, Adley Caldwell, Lloyd Hancock, Robert Hughey, Jay Jordan, Joseph McGuire, James Ramsey, Francis Raymond, Gus Ray Ridings, Kelly Thomson, and Witt Wood.

The first annual Scabbard and Blade Formal was given in the Spring of 1939 with only officers, non-commissioned officers, and their dates present. At this dance, the first pledges of the fraternity were presented after the Grand March.

Scabbard and Blade entertained with its second Formal March 2, 1940. Immediately following the Grand March the pledges for the semester were announced, and the Regimental sponsors for the R. O. T. C. unit were introduced.

A series of smokers and dinner dances are given by the fraternity each year.

This society, known as the Arkansas State College Historical Society, and in the second year of its existence is of interest to all students. Its purpose is to learn of the history of various towns and communities from which the students of this college come. It is of particular interest to history students, however, and even to some who are not in school. The club collects documents, historical relics, and other data which may help to determine the history of this section. A museum has been started and the society expects to add several collections to it. The museum cases were a gift of the the class of '38.

This Society had its annual banquet in April in joint session with the Northeast Arkansas Historical Society. Parties and picnics are held at various times during the year.

ENGINEERS CLUB

OFFICERS

President .....	Victor Wyatt
Vice-President .....	Russell Shell
Treasurer .....	Fred Niell
Secretary .....	Emmett Burk
Sponsor .....	Dr. C. D. Crosno

The purpose of this club is to promote interest in all types of engineering. An effort is made to present some practical engineering problems to the members.

Programs given at meetings are of two types: talks, and inspection trips. For about half of the programs, outstanding workers in different fields of engineering make talks on their particular work. These talks give the members inside stories on the different phases of engineering.

A great many of the programs are used for inspection trips. Visits are made to telephone companies, power plants, and manufacturing plants. On these trips, members can actually see the results of practical engineering.

HERALD STAFF

Sponsor ..... William Wyatt

Made up of members of the editing class plus Technical Supervisors, the Herald Staff "puts out" the Herald each Thursday afternoon.

The Editing class functions on a rotating schedule that makes each member editor, in turn. Each week the editor of the week appoints his staff from the remaining class members. Thus the Herald Staff gets practical work in editing, printing, and managing a newspaper.

Several inspection tours are made each year to numerous newspaper plants in this section.

The Home Economics Club has existed for some time on the campus and has been outstanding in its activities. Each year it gives a tea for all prospective members. It contributes each year to the White Christmas fund. In May, it honors the senior girls with a breakfast held on Sunday before graduation. The members usually treat themselves to a pot luck supper in the spring.

Regular meetings are held twice each month in the Home Economics rooms. Speakers appear frequently on the programs. The club serves as hostess to visiting clubs on various occasions.

Representatives are sent to state meetings in the spring.

The art club, "Le Artistes," has two main objectives—one, the creation of a closer fellowship among those students especially interested in art, through projects worked up by the group, as their chapel program; two, the opportunity for further art and nature appreciation through practical creative work in art crafts, stage crafts and art history. A sketching hike and supper, and studio teas are included in the year's activities.

ORCHESTRA

Director ..... Lester Somers

The College orchestra is open to all students of musical ability. Under the direction of Mr. Somers the orchestra has appeared with the Jonesboro Choral Club in presenting the Messiah, and played for presentation of the Dramatic Club. The orchestra has also played in student recitals and presented programs in a number of high schools of Northeast Arkansas. From time to time the orchestra joins the Jonesboro Symphonic Orchestra in presenting concerts.

Selected members of the orchestra compose two popular small groups, the violin quartette and the string trio, which have played for banquets and programs during the year.

Since the Alpha Kappa Chapter of Pi Omega Pi, national business honorary fraternity, was established on the campus of Arkansas State College March 18, 1939, it has had steady growth and has caused students in this field to work with new enthusiasm.

As in other national honorary societies, membership in Pi Omega Pi, is based on scholarship and subject requirements. On Honors Day the fraternity makes awards to outstanding students in accounting and in shorthand, and presents a number of medals for typing proficiency.

Y.M.C.A.-Y.W.C.A.

The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. are among the oldest organizations on the campus. For many years, they have served to enrich the social, spiritual, and intellectual experiences of the students.

Bi-weekly meetings are held in the Women's Residence Hall. Formerly, separate meetings were held by the Y. M. and Y. W., but recently, the tendency has been to hold joint meetings.

The organizations sponsor a variety of activities. This year the "Y" served to coordinate the clubs of the campus in the annual White Christmas event. Approximately ten families were supplied with food, clothing, and toys. The student-mixer which has been sponsored annually by the "Y" is now being discontinued and a Stunt Night substituted.

Speakers who have visited the campus in recent years, who are specially trained in "Y" work include Tom Curry, who was travelling secretary of the Southwest region; Fern Babcock and Carroll Moon, regional secretaries of the Southwest region; and Dr. Carolyn, Dean of the school of Religion at S. M. U.

The local chapters annually send representatives to Petit Jean, State Conference, and to Hollister, Mo., Regional Conference. During the past summer, Irene Johnson, President of the Y. W. attended a Seminar at Estes Park, Colorado along with students from the Southwest and Rocky Mountain Regions.

CHEERLEADERS

Arkansas State's Cheer Leading Squad, built around returning veterans James Ramsey and Ed Worsley, is the unit responsible for the student enthusiasm shown at all of our athletic events. It is this group of people to whom State teams owe the support that they received throughout the past year.

With Ramsey in charge, and Worsley as his understudy, a large squad reported, and immediately started to work for a much coveted position on the team. A great deal of time was spent in drilling all of the squad candidates in the fundamentals and movements for each yell. Drills were held each afternoon for two weeks, until everyone seemed to be familiar with the squad's cheering positions.

In the last week before the opening of the athletic schedule, a football game with Northwest Mississippi Jr. College, a series of competitive drills were held to select the five outstanding aspirants for the squad. At the end of that week, Head Cheer Leader Ramsey selected one more boy and two girls to assist in forming a cheering squad. The selections were Bernard "Cracker" Graham, Alice Saliba, and "Pat" Lawhon.

This quintet lost no time in setting to work at building up a pep squad among the student body. The results of their labors have been shown to the greatest advantage by the fine support that the State College Indians have received in all sports throughout the school year.

FOOTBALL QUEEN AND MAIDS

Homecoming Day, the day when old grads return to their old campus haunts to meet their old classmates and to greet the new and present students at Arkansas State. This is the day that the gridiron heroes of State honor and do battle for the young lady whom they recognize as their official Homecoming Queen.

This year the members of the football team nominated and elected as their Queen Mildred Hout, a Junior, from Tuckerman. Those elected to serve in her court as Maids of Honor were Gladys Fisher, Senior; Gene Brown, Sophomore; Kate Bryant, Freshman; and Babe Secoy, Freshman.

On October 14, the Queen and her court reigned over festivities at the football game between State's Indians and the Maroons of Southern Illinois Normal University. The gridiron gladiators presented Queen Mildred with a hard fought 7-0 victory, while a large crowd of students and alumni looked on and cheered.

Just before the game Queen Hout was recognized officially by Captain Joe Woods, and she and her court were presented to the large gathering of spectators as the team's ruler. That night again she reigned at the annual Homecoming Dance sponsored by Delta Omega Sigma.

Gladys Fisher, Babe Secoy, Mildred Hout, Buchanan Captain of Illinois, J. Woods Captain of State, Gene Brown, Kate Bryant.

Coach Bill Adams, facing a very stiff schedule in his first assignment as a college mentor, earnestly went about the task of building a team around a nucleus of only a few veterans of last year. With only a three-weeks conditioning period, Adams whipped the team into fine shape. Under his guidance, the Indians waded through a tough schedule, giving State College its first winning football season in years.

Despite the fact that a steady downpour of rain fell throughout the game, elusive little Willard Tilley, State's freshman sensation, averaged over forty yards per punt. The lone break the Indians were patiently waiting for came midway in the third stanza. Tilley galloped and swam forty yards untouched through the Memphis line to pay dirt on a perfectly executed play. Cliff Von Heck's educated toe promptly provided the margin of victory with a perfect conversion.

MISSOURI SCHOOL OF MINES 39 STATE 6

State's trek to Rolla, Mo., on October 7, turned out disastrously, the Indians being soundly thumped 39-6. Hampered seriously by early season injuries, State fell victim to the Missouri Valley Conference Champion's reserve strength.

After the annual jaunt into Illinois before Christmas in which the Davismen won 2 and dropped 5 to the strongest quints in the midwest, the regular cage season opened Jan. 6 against Memphis Teachers. Playing more state games than in previous years, the Indians ended up in fourth place in state collegiate standings, with 7 wins and 5 losses.

Only Capt. Dorse Keller was lost by the Redskins this season, and sparked by several sensational freshmen of this year, next season promises to be a very successful one for State.

GIRLS INTRAMURALS

The intramural program for girls is much like that for boys. Five hundred points entitles a girl to win a letter. For succeeding years, letters are awarded with stripes, for the year, and stars, for captains. If a girl has won four letters, a special award is given.

Sarah June Daugherty was the swimming champion for 1939-40. She was also winner of the paddle tennis singles, and she and Mable Nance, won the paddle tennis doubles championship.

Christine Barnett's team won the softball tournament. Those comprising the championship team were Aline Ward, Zula Ramsey, Mary Davis, Gussie Mae Rorex, Lucille Work, Patty Sanders, Alice Saliba, and Babe Jackson.

The championship speedball team was captained by Deltha Carpenter, and those earning points on it were Ruth McBride, Juanita Caldwell, Mary Louise Grier, Mary Davis, Sarah June Daugherty, Alice Saliba, and Gussie Mae Rorex.

Juanita Caldwell and her teammates won the hockey title. The team consisted of Mary Davis, Zula Ramsey, Veona Ramsey, Ruth McBride, Christine Barnett, and Deltha Carpenter.

The Independent team, captained by Juanita Caldwell, won the intra-sorority basketball tournament. Those participating were Mable Nance, Deltha Carpenter, Gussie Mae Rorex, Christine Barnett, Marjoria Sutton, Wilma Buhrmester, Almeda Berry, Lucille Work, and Katherine Abbot.

BOYS INTRAMURALS

Realization of the need for a program to develop student in exercise and recreation, led Athletic Director H. B. Schwartz to draw up a system of intramural sports for the students of Arkansas State. At the present time the school has one of the best intramural setups in the South. It takes in all athletics for both boys and girls. Since 1936-37 the girls and boys athletics have come under different heads.

Any boy is eligible for intramurals if he is a member of the student body in good standing; however no member of a varsity team is eligible for intramurals in that particular sport in which he is a varsity member.

The giving of letters is based on a point system. All members of a championship team are awarded 100 points, second place receives 75 points, third 50, fourth 35, fifth 25, sixth 15, seventh 10, and eighth place wins 5 point. After all tournaments and leagues have finished their play, all of the points are compiled. Those with 500 points or better are awarded a four-inch letter. Each year trophies are awarded to the girl and boy who win the most points.

In the Inter-Freshman Tennis tournament, Buddy Jim McCall proved to be the strongest and won by defeating George Kell in the finals. The All-Campus tournament went to speedy Charles Powell, Johnny Tibbels and George Kell teaming up to come through as the doubles winners.

The Swimming and Diving meet saw two fine aquatic stars, George Hill and J. B. Husband, tie for the first spot in point gathering.

Volleyball came into the picture next with Kappa Sigma Nu Fraternity winning easily. They defeated Delta Omega Sigma and the N. Y. A. in rapid succession to win. Members of the team were Charles Clark, J. D. Fortenberry, Dorse Keller, Earl Bundy, John Tibbels, Jimmy Crockett, Jimmie English, Bill Jones, Caleb Davis, Sam McGinnis, Bob Ahern, and Buddy Armstrong.

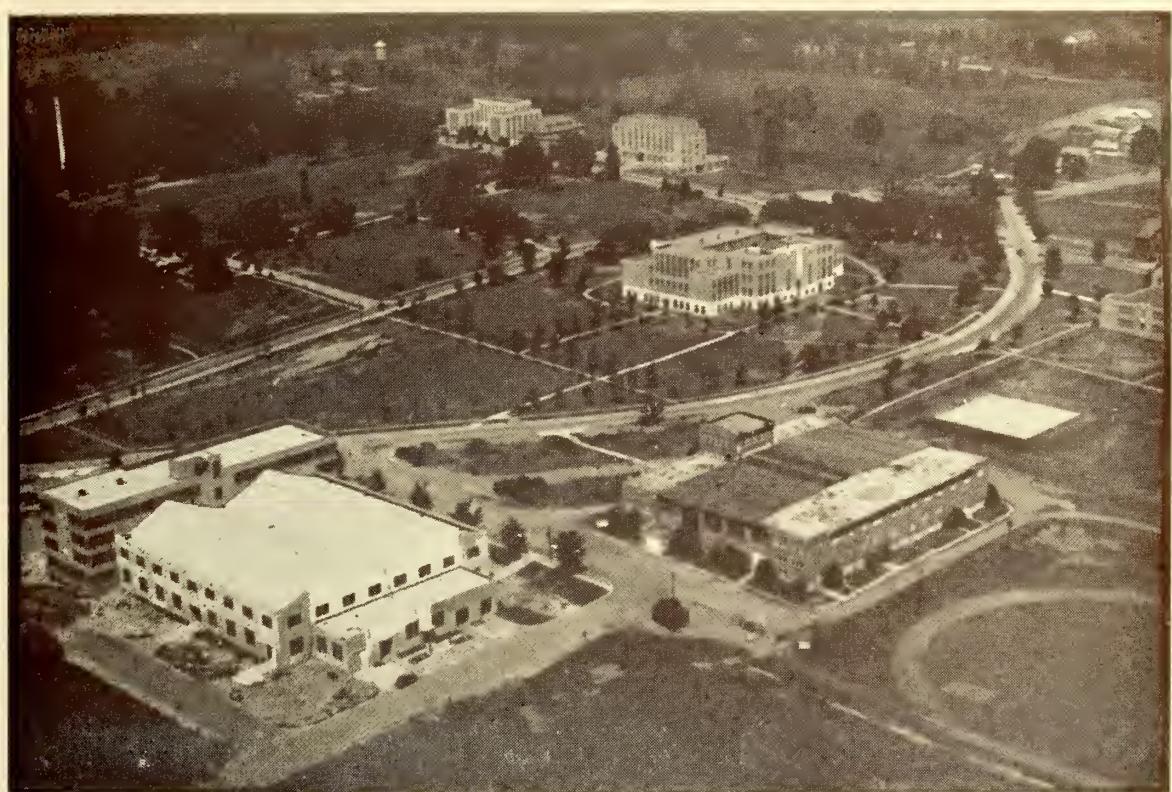

Basketball came into its own just before the close of the first semester, and in the Freshman Tournament a team consisting of boys from town came through to win. They were "Hot" Osment, Dell Settlemire, Willard Tilley, "Fat" Pharis, and John Pickens.

The first semester All-Campus tournament was won by Delta Omega Sigma by defeating the N. Y. A., the Shamrocks, and Zeta Tau Zeta in succession. The members of this team were Ivor Morrison, James Ramsey, Paul Hoffman, Roscoe Chitwood, Jimmy Garner, Billy Cureton, George Booker, James Cockrill, Eddie Hartsock, and Ed Worsley.

DIVISION VI--FEATURES

THANKS ADVERTISERS

Each year that our Indian is published, a subscription campaign is launched by the students; and each year, too, a campaign is started for advertisements in the annual. A successful publication has to have both of these funds.

To our many loyal advertisers, we are thankful. Many of the firms that are listed in the next few pages have placed an ad in every annual that has come from Arkansas State College.

Read these next few pages with interest; and, when possible, give these firms a boost. Go out of your way sometimes for them. They have helped us many, many times.

During the first part of the 1939-40 school year, many students were wondering if the 1940 INDIAN would be published, for during the first semester less than 200 Annuals were sold. However, early in February, work was begun on the current publication.

Faced with the task of having the annual completed before the first of May caused the INDIAN Staff considerable worry. Photography and Engraving work was started and all material started pouring in. With this sudden bit of production, our quota of INDIANS was sold, and we really began to obtain results.

I want to personally thank Dr. Ashley Robey, our Senior Class Sponsor, who has helped untiringly in our struggles and difficulties which occurred while producing your INDIAN. To the Mounting Editors, who spent many hours on the tedious undertaking, I wish to convey my sincerest thanks.

And to all the students that aided in the work of the Annual, I really do thank you. I have enjoyed the work on the 1940 INDIAN because the co-operation from the students, printers, and others has been excellent.

We, the seniors, have finished our product. The many hours of work have passed and now we have an INDIAN that most of us will keep for a lifetime—to remind us of our grand times at Arkansas State College.

To you underclassmen of A. S. C., let me say "Good luck in your future INDIANS." Here's hoping that the INDIAN will continue to be edited annually as long as the college is in existence.

—Edwin H. Garrison
